

Table of contents

I. METHODOLOGY OF LOGOPEDIC RESEARCH

MIROSLAW MICHALIK
Cultural competence as a subject of interest in modern speech therapy – on the example of children poetry usage in speech therapy*.....	11
URSZULA JĘCZEŃ
Fear is near the ear or on the locus of emotions in the human body – based on the utterances of six-year-old children	23
AGNIESZKA HORODECKA
Spelling and punctuation efficiency of first and second grade students of primary school. Evaluation of rewritten texts	35

II. SPEECH DISORDERS

	Deafness
MARTA WYSOCKA, LUIZA MACKIEWICZ	Intonation perception in hearing-impaired children.....	53
EWA MUZYKA-FURTAK	Hypocoristic and augmentative constructions in the speech of profoundly hearing-impaired children.....	69
	Epilepsy
MAGDALENA SIEGIEDA-KOZŁOWSKA	Developmental disorders in epileptic children.....	85
	Dysarthria
URSZULA MIRECKA	Suprasegmentals in dysarthric speech in cases of cerebral palsy. The research project	97
	Stuttering
TOMASZ WOŹNIAK	Neuroanatomical causes of stuttering.....	115
	Dementia
ANETA DOMAGAŁA	Interaction: speech therapist – patient with a moderate stage of Alzheimer’s disease.....	127

III. Logopedic Therapy

Formation Skills

MAGDALENA CZAJKOWSKA, EWA KAPTUR

Vojta therapy in the diagnosis and the suck–swallow–breathe triad treatment of a prematurely born child 143

EWA WOLAŃSKA, ADAM WOLAŃSKI

Typefaces that make reading easier for dyslexic people 157

Speech Disorders

Deafness

KAZIMIERA KRAKOWIAK

Linguistic education and logopedic therapy in the program for the early support of the development of children with profound hearing impairments 181

KATARZYNA PLUTECKA

Conditions of auditory-verbal education of deaf children 205

Dysarthria

MONIKA KOWALSKA

Methods supporting logopedic therapy of patients with dysarthria in Moebius syndrome 217